Breaking the cycle of poverty - one child at a time

Easter Blessings

*"I am the living One; and I was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore"
(Rev 1:18)*

Life would be meaningless if Jesus had not risen. If He had simply died, and not resurrected, we probably never would have heard of Him. He would have been just another martyr, just another target of injustice, another lost cause in the world's parade of victims.

But He did rise, and death is not the end of His story! Because He rose, good overcame evil, light overtook darkness, love overthrew hate and life overwhelmed death.

The book of Revelation begins with a vision of the risen Jesus. White hair, eyes of fire, feet of polished bronze, voice like a waterfall and his face bright like the sun. This is the Easter Jesus – the victorious one who wipes away our tears. In the new heaven and earth that Jesus promises, there will be no death, no mourning, and no pain. It is all because of Jesus, whose love is revealed at Easter. Therefore, we need not be afraid of anything, because the God who made our world is the God who raised Jesus from the dead. Our shame, sorrow and fear are conquered and as believers, the hope of heaven is ours.
